Whitehall, April 18.

THe following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty, who received them very Graciouſly.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Dioceſs of Exeter.

May it pleaſe your Sacred Majeſty,

AS we (your Majeſties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects) do with all our Hearts Condole the Death of our late Gracious Soveraign, your Majeſties most entirely beloved Brother, by whoſe wonderful Reſtauration we were delivered from our late horrible Confuſions, and Eſtabliſhed upon our Antient Foundations of Peace and Truth; So with all our Souls we Adore the Divine Majeſty who in no leſs wonderful manner hath preſerved your Sacred Perſon from the raging of the Sea and the madneſs of the People, and hath bleſſed us with the much deſired peaceable Succeſſion of your Majeſty to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

And with all imaginable Gratitude we do acquieſce in your Majeſties Gracious and Solemn Declaration, to preſerve unto us our Eſtabliſhed Religion, which indiſpenſably obligeth us to a ſtrict Loyalty to your Majeſty as well as to the fear of God, and for which by the Precepts of our Saviour, and the Example of the Glorious Martyr Your Royal Father, we have learned not to account our Lives dear unto us.

And laſtly, we ſhall (as in Duty bound) with our utmoſt Zeal and Faithfulneſs, not only defend your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, Crown and Dignity, and the Rights of your lawful Succeſſion, but induſtriouſly promote them upon all occaſions in our ſeveral ſtations; Praying heartily for your Majeſties long and proſperous Reign over us.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſs of Sarum, aſſembed at the Elections of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Wilts.

Moſt humbly Sheweth,

THat though we have been duly humbled under the Calamity which befel us by the loſs of our late Soveraign of Bleſſed Memory, yet we look upon that Judgment as abundantly repaired by the ineſtimable mercy of Your Majeſty's peaceable Succeſſion to His Crown in the Legal and Lineal courſe of Deſcent; That as we daily pour out our Hearts before the Throne of Grace for this inexpreſſible Bleſſing, ſo being generally met together to ſerve your Majeſty upon this Occaſion, we could not reſtrain them from Congratulating it at Your Royal Feet; That we are moſt deeply and gratefully ſenſible, not only of your Majeſty's great Tenderneſs to your People, approved to us already by the frequent Hazard of your Sacred Life, but of your Fix'd, as well as Declar'd Reſolutions to preſerve the preſent Eſtabliſhment of the Government, and Church of England, the Principles whereof your Majeſty moſt Graciouſly declares to be for Monarchy; That being Devoted Profeſſors of thoſe Principles in the Church, we ſhall ever be ready moſt chearfully to put them in Practice with the hazard of our Lives and Fortunes in your Majeſties ſervice; And that in defect of Opportunity to ſerve your Majeſty with our Lives, we ſhall never fail with a conſtant and intire Devotion to ſerve You with our Prayers; Beſeeching the King of King of Kings, by whom Kings Reign, to Bleſs your Royal Perſon with a long and Proſperous Reign over us, and to continue Your Poſterity in a perpetual Line of Succeſſion to Inherit Your Temporal Crown here, when your Majeſty ſhall be Crown'd hereafter with an Eternal Weight of Glory.

Given under the Epiſcopal Seal of the Dioceſs at the humble Petition, and by the Unanimous Concurrence of all the Clergy preſent on the 24th day of March, in the First Year of your Majeſties moſt happy Reign over us.

The humble Addreſs of the two Grand-Juries for the County of Suffolk, at the Aſſizes holden at Ipwich the Eighteenth day of March, Anno Dom. 1684.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE being Summoned from the ſeveral parts of our Country, to ſerve upon the Grand Juries, and bringing with us the Sentiments of our Neighbors from every corner of it, have it in Charge to aſſure your Majeſty, that the influence of Your Greatneſs and Goodneſs, did at once force its way into the Hearts of Your People.

You were let into the tendereſt of our Affections, (whilſt we were paying our Sorrows for the Death of our late Gracious Saveraign) by that which You, SIR, expreſt, and You formed thoſe affections into Joy by early preparations for our Happineſs and Protection in Your great Declaration. All we had to wiſh, is There, and we found our ſelves the Object of Your Care, before You took any for Your Self.

In dutiful return to this, we ſhall make your Majeſties Grandure and Honour our firſt aim, and are every day making ſteps towards it, by our care for ſending fit Repreſentatives to a Parliament that we hope will no more endure Excluders, than a late one did Abhorrers.

We have every day ſuch Intimations of that great Favour Her Majeſty is pleaſed upon all Occaſions to expreſs to Your People, and of that great Wiſdom with which She manages it, as we beg leave we may hear mention the humbleſt of our Acknowledgments.

And we muſt own, That Loyalty as well as Juſtice hath been ſpread in the face of our Country by thoſe Great Men Your Majeſty ſent to diſpence it at our Aſſizes; So that having had all things to make us an obliged, 'tis impoſſible but we muſt live a Grateful and a Dutiful Country.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, JAMES the Second, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c

The humble Addreſs of the Earl of Craven, Lord Lieutenant of your Majeſties County of Middleſex, City and Liberties of Weſtminſter, &c. and of the Deputy Lieutenants, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, and other Commiſſion Officers of the Militia of the ſaid County, City and Liberties.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſties Loyal Subjects, do with great Grief Condole the loſs of our late Soveraign Lord King Charles the Second; and yet with our bounden Duty, and unſpeakable Joy, congratulate your Majeſties peaceable Succeſſion to the Crown and Throne of your Anceſtors: And as we have been ever Dutiful and Faithful to your Royal Deceaſed Brother, ſo we ſhall aſſuredly perſevere in our conſtant Loyalty to your moſt Sacred Majeſty, and firmly adhere to your intereſt, and with our Lives and Fortunes ſerve your Majeſty, for the preſervation of your Royal Perſon and Government, and ſhall dayly pray for your Majeſties long and proſperous Reign.

There have been likewiſe preſented to His Majeſty very Loyal Addreſſes, From the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and the reſt of the Gentlemen of the County of Flint. From the Lieutenant Governor, the Judge, Jurats, and all the Inhabitants of the Iſle of Auregny part of His Majeſties Antient Dutchy of Normandy, in French. And from the Borough of Aiſhburton in the County of Devon: Which His Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

The Addreſs from Aiſhburton was preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honorable the Earl of Bath.
